MERCY'S ANATOMY

Document MA-005: Character Bible, Volume 1

Revision E. Canon Lock v2.5. 142 character entries. Amends MA-001 §12 (characters are now filled)

STATUS: LOCKED IN. Every character below is African American and is treated as a real person, with a real birthday, birthplace, family, schooling and history. Creator-defined facts (the first 14 characters) are preserved exactly; backstory has been built around them. All other characters were created for this bible as original people who fill the equivalent roles of Grey's Anatomy characters (MA-003 §2), plus wholly original characters. Items that needed or still need a creator decision are marked Continuity flag and collected in §9.

1. Casting Rules

- Heritage: every character in Mercy's Anatomy is African American. They come from across the country (Roxbury, Gary, Baldwin Hills, Shaw, Cambria Heights, New Orleans' Seventh Ward, the Greenwood district in Tulsa, Southwest Georgia farm country) and from every class background, from steelworkers' kids to a $200 billion dynasty.
- Black don't crack: characters age gracefully on screen and on the page. Descriptions note how much younger people look than they are, and it's a running joke and a running truth in the show. Their real ages never change: every age is calculated from the birthday on the date of the scene (MA-001 §8). A character can look 30 at 45, but the paperwork, the medicine and the story always use 45.
- Ages in this bible are calculated to the day for July 1, 2005 (S1E1), at the start of each character's debut season, and at the start of Season 22 (September 2025). Season start dates for that calculation are approximate (MA-003). Exact episode dates come later.
- Status lines for characters created for this bible mirror their counterpart's run. They will be checked against each counterpart episode by episode when episodes are built.
- The No-Nerf Rule applies to everyone (MA-001 Rule 9). Where a counterpart arc includes an injury, illness or death, the event can carry over, but no character's established skill or intelligence is ever reduced to make it happen.

2. The Creator's Core Cast

The 2005 intern class, their resident, the Bullock-Donohue family and Marc's children, in the creator's own order.

Dr. Marc-Anthony Bullock

Also called	Marc / "Bullock" (he/him)
Born	January 5, 1979, Boston Hospital for Women (now Brigham and Women's), Boston, Massachusetts
Ages	Age on July 1, 2005: 26 | Age at Season 22 start (Sept 2025): 46
Role equivalent	Meredith Grey
Status	MAIN: Season 1-present
Position	Surgical Intern (PGY-1), Queens Grace Hospital, from July 1, 2005
Aspirations	Pediatric Surgery, then Chief of Pediatrics, then Chief of Surgery
Education	Howard University, B.S. Biology, summa cum laude (2001); played four years for the Howard Bison purely for the joy of it. Johns Hopkins University School of Medicine, M.D. (2005).
Family	Second-born child and oldest son of Dr. Natasha Donohue and Dr. Robert Bullock. Older sister Elxa, younger sister Grace. Grandson of Dr. Victor Donohue and Dr. Joan Mercer. Paternal grandmother: Josephine Bullock (D.C.).

Looks. Black don't crack: at 26 he still gets carded at bars and gets mistaken for a med student. Six-foot-five, a hooper's build, a dimpled grin, and a natural look that he never fusses over. People notice him before he says a word.

Personality. He is the sweetest, kindest, most loving, compassionate, innocent and pure man in any room. Children gravitate to him, and he to them. He is outgoing and magnetic on camera and in the spotlight, and genuinely, dangerously funny: unhinged, unfiltered, offensive stand-up-level comedy, often at the worst possible moment. He has an extraordinary intellect (reported IQ of 250). He bends rules and takes creative liberties when a rule is unjust, unfair or stupid, especially when a patient is the one paying for it. He is also a CERTIFIED CRASH OUT. Think Harry Potter and Percy Jackson, times 2000. He is calm and gentle right up until someone he loves is threatened or a powerless person is wronged. Then the meltdown is legendary, loud and usually righteous.

Dream. His number-one ultimate dream is a family: a big, gigantic family. Kids are non-negotiable. He believes in generational wealth, not as a flex but as a promise that no child of his, or anyone he loves, will ever go without.

Backstory. Marc was born into the most powerful medical dynasty on earth, and he decided early on that he didn't want to be known for it. The Donohue family's security policy kept the grandchildren's faces out of the press, so almost no one outside the family knows what he looks like. He lived in Grandma Josephine's rowhouse in Shaw, Washington, D.C., through four years at Howard instead of in a dorm. He graduated near the top of his Hopkins class while volunteering most nights in the pediatric ER. He ranked Queens Grace first for its Level I trauma volume and its pediatric surgery service, knowing his mother is the Chief of Surgery there; Natasha formally recused herself from intern selection. On July 1, 2005, he walks in as 'just Bullock,' hiding that he is the son of the Chief of Surgery and the Chief of Cardiothoracic Surgery and the grandson of Victor Donohue and Joan Mercer, so that he can make real friends and let his talent speak for itself. The night before, June 30, 2005, he met a woman at the bar across the street, Esther Smilley, and he has no idea she's in his intern class.

Future (canon). He will become the most successful, powerful, influential, respected, beloved, charitable (sparing no expense) and wealthiest man in the world. His future personal net worth is more than $990 billion and rising every single day. He marries Esther Smilley in 2011. His children are Emma (2011), MJ (2013) and Victoria (2016).

Continuity flag. Wealth (creator ruling): Marc rises to wealthiest man in the world gradually over the course of the show, Seasons 1-22. The specific milestones are set as episodes are built. The secret identity is in constant danger: three Bullocks in one hospital, and a mother who is the Chief.

Dr. Amond Baker

Also called	Amond (he/him)
Born	February 10, 1979, Cedars-Sinai Medical Center, Los Angeles, California
Ages	Age on July 1, 2005: 26 | Age at Season 22 start (Sept 2025): 46
Role equivalent	Cristina Yang
Status	MAIN: Season 1-10; RECURRING: Season 20-present
Position	Surgical Intern (PGY-1), Queens Grace Hospital, from July 1, 2005
Aspirations	Cardiothoracic Surgery, then Chief of Cardiothoracic Surgery
Education	Stanford University, B.S. Biochemistry (2001). Harvard Medical School, M.D. (2005), with a published first-author paper in cardiac transplant immunology.
Family	Father Dr. Leonard Baker, an anesthesiologist, was killed in a car crash on Stocker Street in 1988. Mother Harriet Baker remarried orthodontist Dr. Solomon Fenwick. He is an only child.

Looks. Black don't crack: at 26 he could pass for 21. He is lean and sharp-featured, with a fresh line-up every Sunday without fail, scrubs that somehow look tailored, and a resting face that scares interns.

Personality. Brilliant, ruthless, blunt and allergic to small talk. He thinks feelings are a scheduling problem. His competitive drive is terrifying. Under all of it he is fiercely, permanently loyal. He will become Marc's best friend, his brother and his right-hand man, and their bond is the spine of the show. Marc's line for him: 'You're my day one.'

Dream. To be the best cardiothoracic surgeon in the world, and to be told so.

Backstory. Amond grew up in Baldwin Hills, the 'Black Beverly Hills' of Los Angeles. When he was nine, his father's car was T-boned on the way home from a Lakers game, and Amond held his father's hand and watched him bleed out before the paramedics arrived. He decided that day that he would be the person in the room who knows what to do. His mother remarried within three years, and Amond treated his stepfather with polite contempt for a decade. At Stanford and Harvard he was the student professors complained about and then recommended. He ranked Queens Grace first because it puts interns in the OR faster than any program in New York, and he arrives intending to get the best cases by any means necessary.

Future (canon). He leaves at the end of Season 10, when Robert Bullock offers him the chance to run a cutting-edge cardiothoracic institute in Zurich. He returns in a recurring role from Season 20.

Continuity flag. By creator ruling R-4, the Burke-Yang romance becomes an intense mentor and protégé bond with Robert Bullock, keeping all of its beats. Cristina's pregnancy storylines can't apply to Amond and will be adapted at episode build.

Dr. Esther Smilley

Also called	Esther (she/her)
Born	September 20, 1979, Boston City Hospital, Boston, Massachusetts
Ages	Age on July 1, 2005: 25 | Age at Season 22 start (Sept 2025): 46
Role equivalent	Derek Shepherd (plus Izzie Stevens's backstory)
Status	MAIN: Season 1-11, 19-present; RECURRING: Season 12-18
Position	Surgical Intern (PGY-1), Queens Grace Hospital, from July 1, 2005
Aspirations	Neurosurgery at first, then a pivot to OB/GYN; eventually Chief of OB/GYN
Education	Boston University, B.A. Neuroscience (2001), on full scholarship. Harvard Medical School, M.D. (2005).
Family	Father Clarence Smilley, owner of Smilley's Hardware on Blue Hill Avenue, was shot and killed in an armed robbery of his store on February 11, 1987, while seven-year-old Esther hid behind the counter with her baby sister Amara. Mother Corinne Smilley. Sisters Naomi, Kathryn, Elizabeth and Amara. Malcolm Sloan grew up as an unofficial sixth Smilley child.

Looks. Black don't crack: at 25 she looks barely out of undergrad. She is known for her natural beauty, distinctive features and effortless elegance. She modeled for national hair-care campaigns and on Black fashion-week runways to pay her family's bills.

Personality. Warm, idealistic and a stress-baker: when she's upset, the residents' lounge fills with sweet-potato muffins. She has a calm, steady confidence that makes everyone around her feel safe, and the stubborn heart of a woman who has already survived the worst day of her life. She rides the Hunters Point ferry to work to think.

Dream. To be a surgeon who never makes a family feel the way the police made hers feel in 1987.

Backstory. After her father's murder the family slid from middle class to barely holding on. Corinne cleaned offices at night, and the older girls raised the younger ones. At 16 Esther became pregnant, and in February 1996 she gave birth to a daughter, whom she placed for adoption; she has never told anyone at Queens

Grace. Modeling paid for her sisters' braces and her own textbooks. At 21 she fell for Dr. Clayton Hartwell, an OB/GYN resident eight years older than her, and they married on Martha's Vineyard in August 2004. In February 2005 Esther walked in on Clayton in bed with Malcolm Sloan, the man she thought of as her brother. She rebuilt her residency rank list overnight, put Queens Grace first and moved to New York with two suitcases. On June 30, 2005 she had one perfect night with a funny, kind stranger at the bar across from the hospital. The next morning, he was in her intern class.

Future (canon). She marries Marc-Anthony Bullock in a private ceremony on the Queens Grace Hudson Mercy rooftop on Saturday, February 12, 2011, three months before Emma is born. In the Season 11 car crash (Derek's counterpart event), she survives a near-fatal brain injury made worse by a resident's mistake at an upstate hospital. She makes a full recovery with nothing lost, then chooses to retrain in OB/GYN at NewYork-Presbyterian/Columbia (recurring in Seasons 12-18 while she trains), and returns to Bullock Sloan as a Main OB/GYN attending in Season 19. She is the mother of Emma, MJ and Victoria, and Marc's soulmate. Whenever Esther is not in the main cast (Seasons 12-18), the children live with Marc in the family home. Marc is their primary parent, and Esther keeps a small apartment near Columbia for call nights and comes home whenever her schedule allows.

Continuity flag. Resolved by rulings R-5 and R-7. She holds Derek's role and romance plus Izzie's backstory. Izzie's romances belong to Dr. Raven Ellison. Derek's Season 11 death becomes her survival, full recovery and OB/GYN retraining.

Dr. Arianna Cummings

Also called	Arianna / "Problem" (she/her)
Born	October 25, 1979, Methodist Hospital, Gary, Indiana
Ages	Age on July 1, 2005: 25 | Age at Season 22 start (Sept 2025): 45
Role equivalent	Alex Karev
Status	MAIN: Season 1-16; RECURRING: Season 21-present
Position	Surgical Intern (PGY-1), Queens Grace Hospital, from July 1, 2005
Aspirations	General Surgery, then Chief of General Surgery
Education	Indiana University Bloomington, B.S. Kinesiology (2001), on a track scholarship (400m hurdles, Big Ten finalist). Indiana University School of Medicine, M.D. (2005), where she failed her boards once and passed them the second time with a vengeance.
Family	Her father, Raymond Cummings, is a laid-off U.S. Steel worker turned heroin addict who beat his kids. Her mother, Loretta, lives with schizophrenia. Brother Ahmad and sister Aaliyah, whom Arianna partly raised.

Looks. Black don't crack: at 25 she reads as 20 until she opens her mouth. She has a hurdler's frame, a box-braid ponytail, and a smirk that starts fights.

Personality. Abrasive, crude, provocative and deliberately unlikable. The Warden (Elxa) calls her 'Problem' within a week. Underneath the attitude is the kid who stood between her father and her siblings, and she is secretly the softest person in the intern class, especially with scared children and anyone who's been abandoned. She is a lesbian, and very private about it in 2005.

Dream. A home that nobody can take from her.

Backstory. Gary's steel economy collapsed under her family. At 14, Arianna broke her father's nose with a cast-iron skillet to stop him from hitting her mother; he left, came back and left again. She ran hurdles because running was the only time nobody could touch her. Medicine was the way out, and her family is the reason she can never fully leave. She chose Queens Grace because it was as far from Gary as her rank list would reach, and because its general surgery program trains people to handle anything.

Future (canon). She leaves in Season 16 and returns in a recurring role from Season 21.

Continuity flag. Every one of her romances is with a woman. By ruling R-5, Izzie's romance with Alex's counterpart goes to Dr. Raven Ellison. They marry in Connecticut in 2009 (it isn't legal in New York until July 2011), and in Season 16 Arianna leaves to be with Raven.

Dr. Harmony Divine

Also called	Harmony / "Double-O" (she/her)
Born	June 19, 1979, Mary Immaculate Hospital, Jamaica, Queens, New York
Ages	Age on July 1, 2005: 26 | Age at Season 22 start (Sept 2025): 46
Role equivalent	George O'Malley and Teddy Altman
Status	MAIN: Season 1-5, 15-present; RECURRING: Season 14
Position	Surgical Intern (PGY-1), Queens Grace Hospital, from July 1, 2005
Aspirations	General Surgery at first, then a pivot to Trauma Surgery
Education	Stony Brook University, B.S. Biology (2001). SUNY Downstate College of Medicine, Brooklyn, M.D. (2005).
Family	Father Howard Divine, an MTA bus operator for 31 years. Mother Lillian Divine, a church-choir soprano and lunch lady. Big brothers Jerome 'Jerry' and Ronald 'Ronnie' Divine. Born on Juneteenth, which her grandmother called a sign.

Looks. Black don't crack: at 26 she gets asked if she's somebody's daughter on rounds. She has a round, open face and a gap-toothed smile, and she wears her hair in a puff, or a bun on OR days.

Personality. Kind, earnest and loyal to a fault: the intern who'll stay three hours after shift to sit with a patient nobody visits. She is underestimated by everyone, sometimes including herself, until a crisis hits and she becomes the calmest person in the trauma bay. In her first week, she freezes during her first appendectomy and earns the nickname 'Double-O', as in licensed to kill.

Dream. To be the surgeon you want when the worst thing happens.

Backstory. Harmony is Queens born and raised: Cambria Heights, Sunday dinners and three generations in one house. Her best friend and first love, Alicia Monroe, worked on the 104th floor of the South Tower and died on September 11, 2001, the week Harmony started medical school. Harmony never told Alicia she loved her. She is the only one of the interns who is home. She can get you a beef patty at 3 AM and tell you which bus is late. She is the hospital's heart, even though she doesn't know it yet.

Future (canon). She leaves at the end of Season 5, recurs in Season 14, and returns as a main character from Season 15. Her specialty moves from general surgery to trauma surgery.

Continuity flag. By creator ruling R-6, Harmony survives the Season 5 finale and enlists as a U.S. Army trauma surgeon. She meets Rod Maddox in Season 5, and he's the one who inspires her to enlist, which gives them their history for Season 14 on. Teddy's Seasons 6-8 arc goes to Dr. Tess Langford.

Dr. Elxa Bullock

Also called	Elxa / "The Warden" (she/her)
Born	August 29, 1977, Boston Hospital for Women, Boston, Massachusetts
Ages	Age on July 1, 2005: 27 | Age at Season 22 start (Sept 2025): 48
Role equivalent	Miranda Bailey
Status	MAIN: Season 1-present
Position	Third-year Surgical Resident (QGH track Year 3 / clinical PGY-2), from July 1, 2005; supervising resident of the 2005 intern class
Aspirations	General Surgery, then Chief of General Surgery, then Chief of Surgery
Education	Spelman College, B.S. Biology (1999). Columbia University College of Physicians and Surgeons, M.D. (2003). QGH residency since July 1, 2003.
Family	First-born child and eldest daughter of Natasha Donohue and Robert Bullock, born before her parents married. Granddaughter of Victor Donohue and Joan Mercer. Married to Russell Jeffries, a high school chemistry teacher in Jamaica, Queens.

Looks. Black don't crack: at 27 she still looks 22, which is part of why she became terrifying. She is five-foot-three with a short, precise natural cut, and her glare has made grown attendings apologize.

Personality. Strict, short-tempered, morally unbendable and secretly maternal. Her five rules for interns become legend on day one. Her interns call her 'The Warden' behind her back, and she knows, and she likes it. She runs her service like a precision instrument, and she would walk through fire for her people.

Dream. To run the hospital one day, on merit, so that nobody can ever say her last name got her there.

Backstory. Elxa was born when her mother was nineteen and still in college, and she grew up watching Natasha fight to be taken seriously as a young Black mother in medicine. That made her the most disciplined person in any building. She is three years into the QGH 7-year track and, by the program's bad luck, the resident assigned to her own brother's intern class. The family has agreed to keep Marc's secret, which means Elxa has to treat him exactly like everyone else. In practice, she is harder on him than anyone. On her 28th birthday, August 29, 2005, Hurricane Katrina makes landfall, and her service is flooded with relief-transfer patients.

Future (canon). She becomes pregnant during 2005 and gives birth to her son during a hospital lockdown on February 5, 2006. Her later marriage, heart attack and Chief of Surgery era all follow the counterpart's arcs.

Continuity flag. Resolved (R-15): Elxa's family ties are public, because everyone at QGH knows the Chief and the Chief of CT are married and that she's their daughter. Only Marc hides. He tells people Bullock is a common name and that his people are from D.C. (which is true). Her supervising her secret brother is the time bomb.

Dr. Grace Bullock

Also called	Grace / "Gracepedia" (she/her)
Born	April 12, 1981, Beth Israel Hospital, Boston, Massachusetts
Ages	Age on July 1, 2005: 24 | Age at Season 3 start: 25 | Age at Season 22 start (Sept 2025): 44
Role equivalent	Lexie Grey (instead of dying, she ends up in a coma)
Status	MAIN: Season 4-present; GUEST: Season 3
Position	Harvard Medical School student (Class of 2007) in 2005. Surgical Intern at Queens Grace from July 1, 2007.
Aspirations	Pediatric Surgery at first, then a pivot to OB/GYN; eventually Chief of OB/GYN
Education	Brown University, B.S. Neuroscience (2003). Harvard Medical School, M.D. (2007).
Family	Youngest child and daughter of Natasha Donohue and Robert Bullock. Granddaughter of Victor Donohue and Joan Mercer. Sister of Elxa and Marc-Anthony.

Looks. Black don't crack: at 24 she gets mistaken for a high school intern visiting on career day. She is petite and doe-eyed, with a nervous laugh and a ponytail she twists when she's thinking.

Personality. She has a photographic memory ('Gracepedia'), rambles when she's nervous, and is fiercely earnest and romantic. She worships her big brother, and spends years trying to step out of his shadow and her mother's.

Dream. To be loved without having to earn it.

Backstory. As the baby of a dynasty, Grace was always the one people forgot to tell things to. She memorized everything so that she'd never be left out. She's the one Bullock who never needed to hide, because nobody expected anything of her, and that is exactly what drives her. She arrives at Queens Grace in July 2007 determined to be a surgeon on her own terms.

Future (canon). After the Season 8 finale charter-plane crash in the Adirondacks (May 2012), she lies in a coma for a year. She wakes in the Season 9 finale (May 2013), rehabilitates through Season 10 with a full recovery and nothing lost, and resumes the final two years of her residency on July 1, 2014. She finishes in June 2016 and then pursues her pivot to OB/GYN. The 'Bullock' in Bullock Sloan Memorial is for her.

Continuity flag. Resolved (R-13, R-14): the hospital's name honors Grace (Bullock), who survives in a coma, and Malcolm Sloan, who dies. Her counterpart-role romances map onto Malcolm Sloan, Arianna Cummings and Julian Whitmore. Her residency timeline deviation (a two-year interruption) is logged.

Dr. Natasha Donohue

Also called	"Chief" (she/her)
Born	June 2, 1958, Boston Lying-In Hospital, Boston, Massachusetts
Ages	Age on July 1, 2005: 47 | Age at Season 22 start (Sept 2025): 67
Role equivalent	Richard Webber
Status	MAIN: Season 1-present
Position	Attending Surgeon (OB/GYN) and Chief of Surgery, Queens Grace Hospital (Chief since 1999). Board Member, The Victor Donohue Foundation (1978-present).
Aspirations	To leave Queens Grace better than any Donohue institution, on her own name

Education	Radcliffe College / Harvard, A.B. (1980), completed with two infants at home. Harvard Medical School, M.D. (1984). OB/GYN residency, Brigham and Women's Hospital (1984-1988).
Family	Only daughter of Victor Donohue and Joan Mercer. Brothers V.J., Lawrence and Charles Donohue. Married to Robert Bullock in 1978. Children Elxa, Marc-Anthony and Grace. She kept her maiden name for professional reasons.

Looks. Black don't crack: at 47 she is regularly mistaken for her children's older sister. She is regal and tall, with silver beginning at her temples (which she refuses to dye), and she wears a white coat like a crown.

Personality. Commanding, wise, politically ruthless when she has to be, and deeply moral. She has a recovering alcoholic's humility (sober since March 1990) and a teacher's patience that runs out exactly once per crisis. Her line: 'Pull it together, people.'

Dream. To prove that a Donohue can build something without the Donohue name on it.

Backstory. Natasha had Elxa at 19, married Robert at 20, had Marc at 20 and Grace at 22, and finished Radcliffe and Harvard Medical School anyway, while the Boston elite whispered. By 30 she was drinking to survive it, and she got sober at 31. She joined Queens Grace as Chief of OB/GYN in 1993. She moved the family to Manhattan's Upper West Side and became Chief of Surgery in 1999, the first woman and the first OB/GYN to hold the job. At QGH, Obstetric and Gynecologic Surgery is a division of the Department of Surgery. In 2005 two of her children are on her surgical service, and she has sworn to treat them like strangers.

Future (canon). She carries the counterpart's arcs: the chief's chair, the power struggles and the legacy, including the alcoholism relapse arc. She and Robert separate when he leaves at the end of Season 3. They never divorce, and they reconcile after he returns in Season 10. In Season 11, the arrival of Mariah Pettaway, Robert's secret daughter, nearly ends the marriage, and they rebuild it. Her bond with Lorraine Whitmore becomes the most powerful partnership in American medicine.

Continuity flag. Resolved (R-2, R-3, R-10): Natasha absorbs the 'mother whose shadow the lead lives in' beats. The role's affair and secret child pass to Robert. Catherine's counterpart (Lorraine) becomes her power partner, not her spouse.

Dr. Robert Bullock

Also called	"Dr. Bullock" (Senior) (he/him)
Born	February 10, 1956, Freedmen's Hospital, Washington, D.C.
Ages	Age on July 1, 2005: 49 | Age at Season 22 start (Sept 2025): 69
Role equivalent	Preston Burke
Status	MAIN: Season 1-3; RECURRING: Season 10-present
Position	Attending Surgeon (Cardiothoracic) and Chief of Cardiothoracic Surgery, Queens Grace Hospital
Aspirations	To be the greatest heart surgeon of his generation
Education	Howard University, B.S. (1978). Howard University College of Medicine, M.D. (1982). General surgery and cardiothoracic training, Johns Hopkins (1982-1990).
Family	Son of Walter Bullock (D.C. Metrobus driver, 1928-1999) and Josephine Bullock (retired D.C. schoolteacher). Siblings Beverly Bullock-Odom and Walter 'Junior' Bullock Jr. Married to Natasha Donohue in 1978. Father of Elxa, Marc-Anthony and Grace.

Looks. Black don't crack: at 49 he could pass for 39. He is immaculate, with a precise mustache, cufflinks under his scrub sleeves, and a voice like a late-night jazz DJ.

Personality. A perfectionist, proud and disciplined. He plays Coltrane in the OR, and he believes a surgeon's hands are sacred. He is a self-made man who married into the richest family in medicine and has spent 27 years making sure nobody thinks the money made him.

Dream. To be remembered as Robert Bullock, not as Natasha Donohue's husband.

Backstory. Robert grew up in a Shaw rowhouse with his mother's grammar rules and his father's work ethic. He met Natasha at a Howard-Harvard summer research program in 1976, and Elxa was born before he could afford a ring. Victor Donohue offered to pay for everything, and Robert refused every cent; that refusal is still a family legend. In 2005 he is the most demanding attending at Queens Grace. He clocks his son's gifts on day one and pretends he doesn't.

Future (canon). He leaves at the end of Season 3, abandoning his post on the day of his biggest honor and separating from Natasha, and opens the Bullock Institute for Cardiothoracic Surgery in Zurich. That covers the absent-father years (Seasons 4-9). He returns in a recurring role from Season 10, offers Amond Baker the Zurich institute, and reconciles with Natasha. In Season 11, his secret daughter, Mariah Pettaway, arrives.

Continuity flag. Resolved (R-2, R-3, R-4): an intense mentorship with Amond, not a romance. His absence carries Thatcher Grey's 'absent father' beats. His 1981 affair with Dr. Delphine Ware produced Mariah. The hand tremor arc carries over, with Amond covering for him.

Dr. Victor Donohue

Also called	"The Old Man" (he/him)
Born	May 30, 1933, Harlem Hospital, New York, New York
Ages	Age on July 1, 2005: 72 | Age at Season 22 start (Sept 2025): 92
Role equivalent	Harper Avery
Status	RECURRING: Season 1-14
Position	Retired Cardiothoracic Surgeon. Founder and Chairman, The Victor Donohue Foundation (1978-present), Boston.
Aspirations	A dynasty that heals the world
Education	Howard University, B.S. (1953). Howard University College of Medicine, M.D. (1957). Surgical training at Freedmen's Hospital, then a cardiac fellowship that one Boston program granted only after he beat every white applicant on its exam.
Family	Married to Joan Mercer (1957). Children Natasha, Victor Jr. ('V.J.'), Lawrence and Charles. Grandfather of Elxa, Marc-Anthony and Grace, among others.

Looks. Black don't crack: at 72 people guess he's 60. He is tall, with a silver beard, three-piece suits and a gold pocket watch from his father.

Personality. He is formidable, gracious and a legendary grudge-holder. He believes in excellence, family and the long game.

Dream. Fulfilled, and expanding daily.

Backstory. Victor is the son of a Harlem numbers-runner turned church deacon. He came up through segregated medicine, built and patented a heart valve that changed cardiac surgery, then turned the royalties into medical devices, real estate and early biotech. That became the Donohue fortune: $200 billion in 2005 and still growing daily. He founded the Foundation in 1978 and created the Donohue Award for Surgical Excellence, which surgeons call 'the Oscars of surgery.' He would give anything to watch his grandson work. Marc won't let him visit.

Future (canon). He is in the Harper Avery role, so his run and fate follow it, with Season 14 as his last season. His fate is reserved for the creator.

Continuity flag. The heir to Harper Avery's role (the grandson-surgeon) collides with Grace's romance with that character, which is why Julian Whitmore is his godson rather than his grandson.

Dr. Joan Mercer

Also called	"Dr. Mercer" / "Nana" (she/her)
Born	April 17, 1935, Hubbard Hospital, Nashville, Tennessee
Ages	Age on July 1, 2005: 70 | Age at Season 22 start (Sept 2025): 90
Role equivalent	Original (the Donohue matriarch)
Status	RECURRING: Season 1-present
Position	Retired General Surgeon. Board Member, The Victor Donohue Foundation (1978-present).
Aspirations	To keep the family honest
Education	Fisk University, B.A. (1955). Meharry Medical College, M.D. (1959). General surgery residency at Harlem Hospital: one of the first Black women to complete surgical training in New York.
Family	Married to Victor Donohue (1957). She kept her maiden name for professional reasons, which in 1957 was a scandal. Mother of four, grandmother of many.

Looks. Black don't crack: at 70 she looks 55 and outworks everyone. She has a silver pixie cut, pearls, and the posture of a woman who once operated standing on a crate because the stools were 'for the men.'

Personality. Elegant, witty, devastatingly direct. She is the only person Victor is afraid of, and she is Marc's secret ally.

Dream. Grandchildren who are good, not just great.

Backstory. Joan is a Nashville pharmacist's daughter. She marched in 1960, operated through the 1960s on patients other hospitals turned away, and raised four children while teaching at Harlem Hospital. She is the one who taught Marc that a rule only deserves respect if it protects people.

Future (canon). Recurring through the present.

Continuity flag. Resolved (R-2): in Season 7 Joan is diagnosed with early-stage Alzheimer's at 75. Marc breaks the rules of a clinical trial to switch her into the treatment arm (the counterpart's trial-tampering beat). It costs him dearly professionally, but the drug stabilizes her, and she remains herself, sharp and formidable, through the present. Marc's fear of inheriting it becomes a quiet engine of his choices.

Born	May 10, 2011, Queens Grace Hudson Mercy Hospital, Long Island City, Queens

Dream. To be exactly like Daddy, but even funnier (she says).

Backstory. Born at the end of Season 7, at her parents' own hospital, she is the first child of the next Bullock generation.

Future (canon). Her storyline follows Zola's role across the series. Whenever Esther is not in the main cast (Seasons 12-18), the children live with Marc.

Continuity flag. Resolved (R-16): her parents marry on Saturday, February 12, 2011. She is born three months later.

3. Season 1-3 Era: Queens Grace Hospital

The people who fill Queens Grace in the first three seasons: spouses, lovers, nurses, the bar, and the secrets that walk in.

Dr. Raven Ellison (she/her)

Born	December 3, 1979, Memorial Medical Center, Savannah, Georgia
Ages	Age on July 1, 2005: 25 | Age at Season 22 start (Sept 2025): 45
Role equivalent	Izzie Stevens (her romances, and the storylines bound up in them)
Status	MAIN: Season 1-6
Position	Surgical Intern (PGY-1), Queens Grace Hospital, from July 1, 2005. She is the sixth member of the 2005 intern class.

Raven was raised by her grandmother in Savannah's Yamacraw Village public housing, and she did hair at night to get through Savannah State and Morehouse School of Medicine. She's sunny, impulsive and all heart, the intern who loves too hard, and she wants to be a surgical oncologist. She falls for heart patient Darius 'Dash' Duvall and crosses a line to save him that nearly ends her career. She inherits his money and builds the Duvall Free Clinic, has a guilt-soaked affair with Harmony Divine, and marries Arianna Cummings in Connecticut in 2009. A cancer diagnosis in Season 5 tests everything. She leaves in Season 6, and in Season 16 Arianna leaves to be with her.

Continuity flag. Created by creator ruling R-5. She's bisexual. Izzie's frozen-embryo twins storyline needs adapting at episode build.

Dr. Clayton Hartwell (he/him)

Born	March 3, 1971, Boston, Massachusetts (Milton)
Ages	Age on July 1, 2005: 34 | Age at Season 22 start (Sept 2025): 54
Role equivalent	Addison Montgomery
Status	GUEST: Season 1 (finale); MAIN: Season 2-3; GUEST: Seasons 4-6, 8, 18
Position	Attending OB/GYN and fetal surgeon. Arrives at QGH in the Season 1 finale.

Clayton is old Black Boston money: Jack and Jill, Martha's Vineyard summers in Oak Bluffs, and a father who chaired a hospital board. He is brilliant, charming, sharp-tongued and impossible to dislike for long. He married Esther Smilley in Oak Bluffs in August 2004, then destroyed the marriage by sleeping with Malcolm Sloan. He shows up at Queens Grace in the Season 1 finale, introducing himself as Esther's husband, and the hallway goes silent. He stays to fight for his marriage and stays on as an attending, and he becomes the best fetal surgeon in New York.

Continuity flag. Changed from Celeste to Clayton by creator ruling R-8. Because his affair was with Malcolm Sloan, both men are bisexual. The counterpart's pregnancy-from-the-affair beat can't apply and will be adapted at episode build.

Dr. Malcolm Sloan (he/him)

Born	February 14, 1968, Boston City Hospital, Boston
Ages	Age on July 1, 2005: 37 | Age at Season 2 start: 37 | Age at Season 22 start (Sept 2025): 57
Role equivalent	Mark Sloan
Status	RECURRING: Season 2; MAIN: Season 3-9; GUEST: Season 17
Position	Attending Plastic Surgeon, later Head of Plastic Surgery at QGH

Malcolm is a Roxbury kid whose parents were too busy fighting to feed him. Corinne Smilley did it instead, and by age ten he basically lived in the Smilley house. He's eleven years older than Esther, and he was her protector, her big brother and her hero until February 2005, when she caught him in bed with her husband, Clayton. Malcolm is bisexual: a famous ladies' man who has never told anyone about the men. He is a charming, cocky, Valentine's-Day-born ladies' man and a gifted surgeon, and he spends years earning his way back into Esther's life. He falls hard, and for real, for Grace Bullock.

Continuity flag. Resolved (R-13): Malcolm is critically injured in the Season 8 finale charter-plane crash and dies early in Season 9, after confessing his love for the comatose Grace. The 'Sloan' in Bullock Sloan Memorial honors him.

Dr. Camille Toussaint (she/her)

Born	July 21, 1976, Touro Infirmary, New Orleans, Louisiana
Ages	Age on July 1, 2005: 28 | Age at Season 2 start: 29 | Age at Season 22 start (Sept 2025): 49
Role equivalent	Callie Torres
Status	RECURRING: Season 2; MAIN: Season 3-12
Position	Orthopedic Surgery Resident (2005-06), later Chief of Orthopedic Surgery

Camille is the daughter of Augustin Toussaint, a Creole hotel and real estate magnate, and was raised in the Seventh Ward and in Catholic school. She is loud, warm, hilarious, bisexual and unapologetic. Her father loves her desperately and has never accepted that last part. Hurricane Katrina floods her family's properties on August 29, 2005, and the Toussaints come to New York, which brings her father into her life whether she likes it or not. She breaks bones for a living and has a heart that breaks just as easily.

Continuity flag. Resolved: her 2006 Las Vegas chapel wedding to Harmony is a ceremony with no legal force, since same-sex marriage wasn't legal then. They treat it as a marriage, and its legal emptiness becomes a weapon in the affair fallout.

Russell Jeffries (he/him)

Born	April 3, 1975, Queens General Hospital, Jamaica, Queens
Ages	Age on July 1, 2005: 30 | Age at Season 22 start (Sept 2025): 50
Role equivalent	Tucker Jones

Position	Chemistry teacher at a Jamaica, Queens high school; Elxa Bullock's husband

Russell is a sweet, steady Queens man who coaches the step team and grades labs at the kitchen table. He married Elxa in 2002. He loves her, but he never understood why surgery always wins, and their marriage cracks under the hours.

Russell "Tuck" Jeffries Jr. (he/him)

Born	February 5, 2006, Queens Grace Hospital, Long Island City (born during a hospital lockdown)
Ages	Not yet born on July 1, 2005 | Born during or after Season 2 | Age at Season 22 start (Sept 2025): 19
Role equivalent	William George "Tuck" Bailey Jones
Status	RECURRING: Season 2-present
Position	Son of Elxa Bullock and Russell Jeffries

Tuck is born on Super Bowl Sunday, during a lockdown. His middle name is Harmon, after Dr. Harmony Divine, who delivered him in the stairwell. He grows up in the hospital daycare, and he is the first grandchild in the Bullock line.

Continuity flag. His full name is Russell Harmon Jeffries Jr.

Darius "Dash" Duvall (he/him)

Born	August 8, 1971, Charlotte, North Carolina
Ages	Age on July 1, 2005: 33 | Age at Season 2 start: 34 | Age at Season 22 start (Sept 2025): 54

Status	RECURRING: Season 2; GUEST: Season 5
Position	Cardiac patient awaiting a heart transplant at QGH

Dash is a former Charlotte Hornets ball-boy turned sneaker-store owner with a failing heart. He flirts like his life depends on it, because it might. He's the patient who makes a doctor cross the line.

Dr. Faith Danforth (she/her)

Born	November 2, 1972, Hartford, Connecticut
Ages	Age on July 1, 2005: 32 | Age at Season 2 start: 32 | Age at Season 22 start (Sept 2025): 52

Ages	Age on July 1, 2005: 42 | Age at Season 22 start (Sept 2025): 62

long-term partner, Cedric Hall.

Cedric Hall (he/him)

Born	January 22, 1965, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania

Role equivalent	Virginia Dixon
Status	RECURRING: Season 4-5

Vivian is autistic, a literal-minded and brilliant cardiac surgeon who can't tolerate being touched. The interns misunderstand her at first. Amond eventually learns more from her than from anyone.

Sydnee Reese (she/her)

Born	August 20, 1989, Boston, Massachusetts

Dr. Roderick "Rod" Maddox (he/him)

Born	October 4, 1972, Fort Hood, Texas (Army base hospital)

Rod is an Army brat turned Army surgeon who comes home in 2009 with PTSD he won't name. He's gentle, haunted and decisive under fire, and he falls hard for Amond Baker. He builds QGH's trauma program into the best in the city.

Continuity flag. Resolved (rulings R-6 and R-17): he meets Harmony in Season 5 and inspires her to enlist. His war history is with Dr. Tess Langford.

Dr. Autumn Lockett (she/her)

Born	January 30, 1975, Camp Lejeune, North Carolina

Status	RECURRING: Season 5; MAIN: Season 6-14
Position	Attending Pediatric Surgeon, later Chief of Pediatric Surgery. Marc's pediatrics mentor.

Autumn is the daughter of a Marine colonel, and she wears roller-shoes on rounds. Her brother, Lt. Timothy Lockett, was killed in Iraq. She is sunshine with steel underneath, and she becomes Camille's great love. She's the attending who looks at Marc and says, 'You're one of my people.'

Continuity flag. She loses a leg after the Season 8 finale disaster. That is the counterpart's arc, and it carries over without diminishing her: she comes back as the same surgeon.

Dr. Loretta Wise (she/her)

Born	November 11, 1950, Greenwood district, Tulsa, Oklahoma
Ages	Age on July 1, 2005: 54 | Age at Season 5 start: 57 | Age at Season 22 start (Sept 2025): 74

Dr. Teresa "Tess" Langford (she/her)

Born	September 14, 1973, Womack Army Medical Center, Fort Bragg, North Carolina
Ages	Age on July 1, 2005: 31 | Age at Season 6 start: 36 | Age at Season 22 start (Sept 2025): 52
Role equivalent	Teddy Altman (Seasons 6-8 arc)
Status	MAIN: Season 6-8
Position	Attending Cardiothoracic Surgeon; former U.S. Army surgeon who served with Rod Maddox in Iraq

Tess is Rod Maddox's oldest friend from the war: the surgeon who operated beside him in a tent in Mosul in 2004, and who has been in love with him ever since. She's recruited to Queens Grace's cardio service in Season 6, where she becomes Amond Baker's tough-love mentor and his rival for Rod. She marries a patient, Elliott Barnes, so that he can get health insurance, falls for him for real, and loses him in Season 8. She re-enlists at the end of Season 8.

Continuity flag. Created by creator ruling R-6. Teddy's later arc (Season 14 to the present) belongs to Harmony Divine.

Elliott Barnes (he/him)

Born	June 30, 1975, St. John's Riverside Hospital, Yonkers, New York
Ages	Age on July 1, 2005: 30 | Age at Season 7 start: 35 | Age at Season 22 start (Sept 2025): 50
Role equivalent	Henry Burton
Status	RECURRING: Season 7-8
Position	Patient with Von Hippel-Lindau disease; Tess Langford's husband

Elliott is a funny, uninsured IT guy with a hereditary tumor syndrome. Tess marries him so her insurance will cover his surgeries, and the marriage of convenience becomes the love of her life. He dies on the table in Season 8.

Dr. Conrad Ashby (he/him)

Born	July 7, 1955, Hackensack, New Jersey
Ages	Age on July 1, 2005: 49 | Age at Season 6 start: 54 | Age at Season 22 start (Sept 2025): 70
Role equivalent	Original (Hudson Mercy's Chief of Surgery)
Status	RECURRING: Season 6-7
Position	Chief of Surgery at Hudson Mercy Medical Center, Jersey City. He loses the top job in the merger.

Conrad is smooth, political and wounded. He brought his residents across the Hudson and wants Natasha's chair. He's the face of the merger war.

Dr. Eden Whitfield (she/her)

Born	March 2, 1982, Sumter County, Georgia
Ages	Age on July 1, 2005: 23 | Age at Season 6 start: 27 | Age at Season 22 start (Sept 2025): 43
Role equivalent	April Kepner
Status	RECURRING: Season 6; MAIN: Season 7-14; GUEST: Season 17
Position	Hudson Mercy resident who joins QGH in the merger. Later chief resident and Chief of Trauma.

Eden is the daughter of a fourth-generation Black farming family that has held onto its land since 1919. She is devout, earnest and Type-A. Everyone dismisses her as 'too much' until she becomes the best trauma surgeon in the building.

Dr. Julian Whitmore (he/him)

Born	April 9, 1982, Massachusetts General Hospital, Boston
Ages	Age on July 1, 2005: 23 | Age at Season 6 start: 27 | Age at Season 22 start (Sept 2025): 43

Position	Hudson Mercy resident who joins QGH in the merger. Later a plastic surgeon and a Foundation board member.

Julian is Victor Donohue's godson and the grandson of Victor's late surgical partner, Dr. Elias Whitmore. He inherits a permanent board seat at the Foundation, and the resentment that comes with being 'the pretty one with the famous godfather.' He has grey-green eyes and a chip on his shoulder.

Continuity flag. Resolved (R-9): Victor's godson, not his grandson, so that his romances with Grace and Mariah are not between cousins.

Dr. Lorraine Whitmore (she/her)

Born	September 9, 1956, Boston, Massachusetts
Ages	Age on July 1, 2005: 48 | Age at Season 8 start: 55 | Age at Season 22 start (Sept 2025): 69
Role equivalent	Catherine Avery (Fox)
Status	RECURRING: Season 8-18
Position	Urologist; Board Member, The Victor Donohue Foundation; Julian's mother

Lorraine is a legendary urologist and a fearsome mother, the only person who negotiates with Victor Donohue as an equal. She is later the force behind the Foundation's biggest reckoning.

Continuity flag. Resolved (R-10): the counterpart romance with Natasha becomes a power partnership and deep friendship. Together they run the Foundation's reckoning.

Damon Whitmore (he/him)

Born	May 5, 1955, Boston, Massachusetts

9. Creator Rulings (All Resolved)

Several creator characters hold two roles, or a role whose family ties differ from the counterpart's. Each item below is a real continuity collision. All 17 are now resolved, either by the creator directly (marked 'creator') or by decision under the creator's instruction to decide.

#	Collision	Recommendation
R-1	Natasha's Foundation board start (1976) came before the Foundation's founding (1978).	RESOLVED (creator): 1978.
R-2	Ellis Grey, Thatcher, Susan and Molly don't exist in the same form, because Marc's parents are Natasha and Robert.	RESOLVED: Natasha absorbs the 'mother's shadow' beats, and Robert's Season 4-9 absence absorbs Thatcher's 'absent father' beats. Susan and Molly's beats are dropped. Joan gets early-stage Alzheimer's in Season 7, and Marc tampers with a trial to save her; the drug works and she stays herself.
R-3	Mariah Pettaway's (Maggie's counterpart) birth parents.	RESOLVED: Robert Bullock and Dr. Delphine Ware (a 1981 affair). Mariah is Marc's paternal half-sister, and Grace stays Natasha's youngest.
R-4	Robert and Amond: romance or mentorship?	RESOLVED (creator): an intense mentor bond.
R-5	Esther's two roles collide over Izzie's romances.	RESOLVED (creator): Esther keeps Derek's romance. Izzie's romances go to Dr. Raven Ellison.
R-6	George's Season 5 death and Teddy's Season 6-8 arc.	RESOLVED (creator): Harmony survives and enlists. Dr. Tess Langford carries Teddy's Seasons 6-8 arc.
R-7	Derek dies in Season 11, but Esther returns.	RESOLVED: Esther survives the Season 11 crash and a resident's near-fatal mistake, recovers fully, retrains in OB/GYN at NewYork-Presbyterian/Columbia (recurring in Seasons 12-18), and returns as Main in Season 19.
R-8	Addison's counterpart: wife or husband?	RESOLVED (creator): husband, Dr. Clayton Hartwell. Malcolm is bisexual.
R-9	Julian Whitmore: Victor's grandson or godson?	RESOLVED: godson.
R-10	Catherine's counterpart (Lorraine) marries Webber's counterpart (Natasha), who is married to Robert.	RESOLVED: it becomes a power partnership and friendship. Natasha and Robert separate after Season 3, never divorce, and reconcile from Season 10.
R-11	Victoria Bullock's role and status.	RESOLVED: Ellis Grey Shepherd's counterpart, RECURRING from Season 12 to the present.

#	Collision	Recommendation
R-12	How and when Marc becomes the wealthiest man in the world.	RESOLVED (creator): gradually, over the course of the show.
R-13	Bullock Sloan Memorial's name, and Malcolm's fate.	RESOLVED (creator): Malcolm dies early in Season 9 from injuries in the Season 8 finale plane crash. 'Bullock' is for Grace, who ends up in a coma.
R-14	When Grace wakes.	RESOLVED: in the Season 9 finale (May 2013), a year after the crash. She has a full recovery and resumes residency on July 1, 2014.
R-15	Does Elxa hide her family ties?	RESOLVED: no, they're public. Only Marc hides, behind 'Bullock is a common name.'
R-16	Emma's birth and her parents' wedding: which comes first?	RESOLVED: they marry first, on Saturday, February 12, 2011, on the hospital rooftop. Emma is born on May 10, 2011.
R-17	Rod Maddox's Army history and Harmony's timeline.	RESOLVED: Rod's war history is with Tess. He meets Harmony in Season 5 and inspires her to enlist.
